

Curriculum Vitae

Tracy H. Goen, M.D.

Education

East Tennessee State University Rural Medicine Fellowship 9/11 – 7/12
Family Medicine Residency: Scott & White Memorial Hospital 1996-99
(Board Certified in Family Practice 1999)
(Licensed to practice medicine in Texas – 1996)
(Licensed to practice medicine in Nigeria – 2000)
Radiology Residency: Scott & White Memorial Hospital 1995-96
Medical School: Texas A&M College of Medicine 1991-95
Veterinary School: Texas A&M College of Veterinary Medicine 1988-91

Undergraduate education:

Texas A&M University	1986-88 (BS in Veterinary Science)
Harvard University	1986 (Graduate studies: Archeology/ Anthropology – Kenya/Tanzania)
University of Houston	1984-86
Univ. of Texas, San Antonio	1982-84
McNeese State University	1980-82

Relevant Professional Experience

March 2013: ABAM, Board Certified in Addiction Medicine
July 2012: Licensed to practice medicine in Tennessee
- currently practicing in Johnson City and Bristol, TN
2012 – Present: Medical Director and Scientific Board member of Global Disease Research (NGO involved in Dengue Fever/Polio research)
2009 – Present: Volunteering with various medical programs serving the indigent community in NE Tennessee and SW Virginia
2007: Served as delegate to Cambodia and Vietnam with People to People Ambassador Program exchanging ideas on medical education and delivery of medical services to rural populations
2006-2009: Practiced Urgent Care Medicine in Texas part-time while making return trips to Nigeria to practice medicine and teach residents
1999-2006: Served as Medical Missionary to Nigeria with SIM
(formerly Sudan Interior Mission)
- served as Medical Director of Egbe Hospital in Egbe, Nigeria
- established ECWA Hospital Egbe as a residency training center for Nigerian medical graduates
- founded non-profit organization: H.E.L.P (Health, Education & Literacy Providers) to meet diverse needs of the people of West Africa
- organized and supervised numerous mission/medical training trips to Nigeria for U.S. medical students and residents
- developed and established primary school for the Fulani tribe

- established agricultural and veterinary vaccination programs for the Fulani tribe
 - organized drilling of over 75 water wells for people in remote areas of SW Nigeria
 - established rural health clinics and developed mobile medical outreach programs in Nigeria
- 2000-01: Training in Orthopedic Trauma Surgery at Scott & White Hospital while on furlough from Nigeria
- 1999: Orientation to Medical Missions at Mercy Ships Training Center
- eight week program studying tropical medicine

Other Educational Experience

Leadership in Medicine program, Texas A&M College of Medicine - 1991-93
Recognized by Dept. of Health and Human Services for establishment of "4th Street Clinic" to serve mental health needs of indigent citizens - 1993
Short-term mission trip during residency to Kenya and Tanzania - 1996
Research: Receptor blockers effects on growth of neuroblastoma cells - '92-3
: Human origins/evolutionary theory, worked with Dr. Richard Leakey in Kenya excavating early human fossil remains
: Artificial Insemination of White Rhinos, helped develop first AI procedure for captive white rhinos (Houston Zoo) - 1984-86

Honors: Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society 1995

Publications: Reproduction in Captive White Rhinos 1988
"Where Care is Needed" Baylor College of Medicine

Personal: Born in Lake Charles, LA (02/19/61)
Grew up in SW Louisiana and central Texas
Interest: reading, writing, poetry, Tae Kwon Do/Aikido, spearfishing

Contact Information

Physical Address:
Laurel Marina
191 Shady Ford Road
Bristol, TN 37620
Cell phone: 979-224-0717
Email: tracy.goen@gmail.com

Mailing Address:
P.O. Box 16337
Bristol, VA 24209